

History

1993 EuroAvionics Navigationssysteme is founded by Mr Rüdiger Klaschka (himself a helicopter and jet pilot) in his living-room, at first as a sales company for available GPS-systems.

1995 Beginning of our own production of navigation systems: EuroNav I with an according product suite is borne

1997 Completion of the first marketable version. 1st client: the English Police and the German SAR (Deutsche Rettungsflugwacht) => the EuroNav product suite has seen its 5th generation in 2007 with steadily enhanced features (such as 2.5D-Engine, map-customizing, threat-visibility, extensive zoom etc): EuroAvionics is worldwide leader in the field of helicopter navigation systems

2001 Breakthru as developer of hard- and software for helicopters as EuroAvionics won the greatest pitch ever launched by the Ministry of Defence of France: Mission-Management-Hard- and Software and a mobile post of commando are entrusted to EAN

2006 SIT-ALAT, Kit HM-PC including features like power management, radio communication management, security features etc. are finished and ready for integration in a pre-series version